1. Introduction of the Company

Farisanani & Associates currently carries on professional consulting in the area of employee relations, labour law and organization performance. The company has accomplishments in these areas in both the corporate and public sectors.

Of particular relevance to this engagement is our continued involvement in guiding organisations as to how best structure their personnel as means to cascade strategic and operational plans through formalised performance management and evaluation formats.

Our team brings with it deep functional experience across several industries as well as a strong and technically adept network of subject matter experts that, when combined with the internal skills, work together to provide sound advice to our clients.

One of our main objectives in the area of employee relations and labour law, is to assist companies in the creation of harmonious and productive workforces through firm, fair and best employee labour practices. We aim to achieve this by assisting our clients in avoiding claims and disputes that potentially could be lodged with the CCMA and protecting their rights as employers.

However should the matter be referred for litigation, we always ensure that we are able to assist through these processes as well.

We provide our clients with advice and direction in compiling, updating and ensuring simplicity in their codes and procedures, training their staff to manage hearings, chairing disciplinary hearings, appeal hearings, preparing for conciliations and arbitrations and assisting in preparing their cases in the event that there is a referral to the CCMA.

We have assisted companies through their wage negotiations and collective agreements and project labour agreements. In addition to dispute, conflict and diversity management we focus on the positive advancement of the employer through advice, education and training which in turn leads to a more harmonious workplace.

Some of our clients includes - South African Airways Technical Ltd; ESKOM; Transnet; Revlon SA (Pty) Ltd; SA National Blood Services; Small Enterprise Development Agency; Adcock Ingram; Gauteng Department of Economic Development; Department of Social Welfare (Northern Cape); Department of Trade & Industry (the “dti”); Emthanjeni Municipality (De Aar); Da Vinci Academy; Tala Resources (Pty) Ltd; Hewlett Packard SA (Pty) Ltd; Oracle SA (Pty) Ltd; SA Civil Aviation Authority, Dabchick Wildlife Reserve (Pty) Ltd, Office of the Premier (Northern Cape); MAKRO, Department of Justice & Constitutional Development, Murray & Roberts; Steffanutti; Department of Police; Department of Co-operation & Traditional Affairs.
All our practitioners have an extremely high litigation success rate, which is often as a result of us assisting the company in putting mechanisms in place that then contribute to allowing our clients to win their cases.
